

441—117.6(237) Application conference available. If an applicant or provider of training objects in writing within seven days after the notification of the department's decision to deny or revoke approval, the service area manager shall review the decision to determine if the original decision shall stand.

The decision of the service area manager is final and is not subject to an appeal.